Business Wire presents MEDIAtreff (translated MEDIAmeeing), the Evening Edition (translated ABENDausgabe) among our events series, which are launched under the theme of communication. Once again our media event brings communication specialists and marketers together for an exciting exchange of ideas. Experts from a variety of well known organizations in the communications industry will lead a panel discussion on the topic of social media and debate on a question that affects businesses and consumers alike: ‘How relevant is Social Media?’. Our specialists will discuss the relevance of social media and deal with both the opportunities and challenges that emerge from the current social media landscape. Participants will gain insight on what role social media plays in the everyday life and on how the use of social media networks could look like in the future.

Attend the event and enjoy a diverse and informative evening in the midst of the extraordinary atmosphere of the Museum for Communication in Frankfurt am Main. Collect new ideas, discover leading trends and encounter inspiring discussions at a relaxed get-together where you can network with interesting people from the communications industry. In addition, all participants who would like to immerse into the history of communication before the start of the event, have the possibility to take a tour for free in the museum.

Schedule of Event:
18:30 pm – Registration
19:00 pm – Panel discussion
20:00 pm - Get-together, networking & buffet

BW events are FREE for professional communicators.
