Speaker(s):
John Campanelli was named publisher and editorial director of Crain's Cleveland Business on Dec. 1, 2013, after serving as associate publisher for four months. Before his return to his hometown of Cleveland, he served as editor of Crain's Waste and Recycling News in Detroit for more than two years.

Prior to joining WRN, Campanelli spent more than 13 years at The Plain Dealer as a copy editor, reporter and editor. Before that, he had a short stint at Crain's Rubber and Plastics News and three years at the Morning Journal in Lorain.

He graduated (with honors) from The Ohio State University in 1993, and attended Hudson High School.

John Campanelli
Publisher and Editorial Director, Crain's Cleveland Business

Campanelli has won multiple awards for his work, including the Casey Medal for Meritorious Journalism, the AASFE Excellence in Feature Writing Award and numerous Ohio AP awards, including Ohio sports columnist of the year (second place).

Join us Tuesday, Feb. 18 at the City Club of Cleveland for a conversation with the new publisher and editorial director of Crain's Cleveland Business, John Campanelli. A Cleveland media veteran, John will discuss the current state of business journalism in Northeast Ohio and his vision for the future of Crain's Cleveland Business. Come meet John for a discussion and Q&A, and to hear how he hopes to serve the Northeast Ohio business community in his new role.
